ENGLAND'S SHAKY START

LANGRIDGE TO THE RESCUE

Mitchell Helps to Take Sting Out of Attack

"LEG-THEORY" AGAIN

CALCUTTA, Friday

England made a fine recovery after a shaky start in the second Test match against India at Eden Gardens to-day. After losing the wickets of C. K. Walters and Barnett for 55 runs, the position was retrieved by some fine batting by James Langridge, D. R. Jardine, and B. H. Valentine, and, at the close of play, the score was 257 for five.

Langridge's batting was the brightest feature of the day's play. The Sussex left-hander, after getting his eye set about the bowling in fine style, and his powerful driving, particularly through the covers, brought him 50 runs in 85 minutes.

Langridge batted more cautiously during the later stages of his innings and took 50 minutes in getting his last 20 runs. Nevertheless, it was a characteristic and invaluable effort that helped in partnerships of 80 and 50 with Mitchell and Jardine respectively. He hit eight boundaries.

Mitchell batted with typical Yorkshire doggedness after losing Jardine's wicket to Nissar's second ball of the first over of the match. Bringing the total to his chief scoring stroke, he stayed at the wicket for two hours 47 minutes in scoring 47, and played a great part in taking the sting out of the Indian attack.

The all-amateur partnership between D. R. Jardine and B. H. Valentine, which was instrumental in pulling the game round for England in the first "Test" on Monday, was again in evidence to-day. Coming together at 185 for 4, they carried the score to 226 before Valentine was dismissed in the closing minutes.

Stubborn Jardine

Valentine batted in his usual bright fashion after a quiet opening and scored 40 of the 71 runs added by the partnership in 66 minutes. He hit a six and three fours. Jardine batted with characteristic stubbornness, showing a straight bat to everything. It must have been a severe experience for the bowlers, and, apparently, the spectators too, for after the English captain had played four consecutive maidens, they exhorted him to "have a go."

Mohammed Nissar, India's fast bowler, supplied a lively topic for conversation by employing leg theory. He had a forward incision, two silly line legs, and a man on the fine leg boundary, but he also had three slips and dispensed with mid-off. Several of his deliveries got up sharply off the pitch, and Mitchell and Jardine were both struck. Mitchell was hit just above the hip, while Jardine received a nasty blow in the abdomen. On each occasion play was held up for a few minutes.

Amar Singh, a fast-medium bowler, who took 139 wickets for the Indian team in England in 1932, was the most troublesome bowler on view. Keeping an excellent length, and making the ball break both ways, he always required careful watching.

Although the day was declared a public holiday by the Governor, the attendance was disappointingly small in comparison with the huge crowds who watched the first "Test" on Monday. Public enthusiasm here is not nearly so great as in most other centres, and as an official of the Bengal Cricket Association said that the match would result in financial loss unless the attendances greatly increased.

During the tea interval the teams were presented to the Governor's wife, Lady Jackson, and to the Governor of Bengal, Sir John Anderson. Only one change was made from the English team which defeated India in the "Test" at Bombay by nine wickets, W. H. V. Levett, the Kent wicket-keeper, replacing Elliott. As in the first "Test," Frank Mitchell was the old Middlesex player, and Bill Hitch, the former Surrey fast bowler, were the umpires.

Batsmen in the Wars

Jardine beat C. K. Walters on to toe, and gave England first knock on an excellent turf wicket. Mohammed Nissar, the Indian fast bowler, caused some disquieting among the spectators by setting a leg-theory field for Mitchell, who came out to open the innings with C. K. Walters, and Mitchell was soon in the wars. Nissar's second ball rose very quickly off the pitch, and struck him on the body. The game was held up for about five minutes while he recovered. He resumed batting amid cheers from the crowd, and almost immediately appealed for a confident appeal for leg-before-wicket off Nissar.

Amar Singh was the other bowler, and Walters was also appealed against for lbw. in his first over. He survived it, however, and proceeded to square-cut the fourth, fifth, and sixth balls of Nissar's third over for the boundary. They were all magnificent shots which drew hearty applause from the spectators.

Amar Singh was keeping an impeccable length and he twice beat Walters, only to miss the stumps by a few inches. Nevertheless, it was a chanceless and invaluable effort that helped in partnerships of 80 and 50 with Mitchell and Jardine respectively. He hit eight boundaries.

Mitchell batted with typical Yorkshire doggedness after losing Jardine's wicket to Nissar's second ball of the first over of the match. Bringing the total to his chief scoring stroke, he stayed at the wicket for two hours 47 minutes in scoring 47, and played a great part in taking the sting out of the Indian attack.

The all-amateur partnership between D. R. Jardine and B. H. Valentine, which was instrumental in pulling the game round for England in the first "Test" on Monday, was again in evidence to-day. Coming together at 185 for 4, they carried the score to 226 before Valentine was dismissed in the closing minutes.

Stubborn Jardine

Valentine batted in his usual bright fashion after a quiet opening and scored 40 of the 71 runs added by the partnership in 66 minutes. He hit a six and three fours. Jardine batted with characteristic stubbornness, showing a straight bat to everything. It must have been a severe experience for the bowlers, and, apparently, the spectators too, for after the English captain had played four consecutive maidens, they exhorted him to "have a go."

Mohammed Nissar, India's fast bowler, supplied a lively topic for conversation by employing leg theory. He had a forward incision, two silly line legs, and a man on the fine leg boundary, but he also had three slips and dispensed with mid-off. Several of his deliveries got up sharply off the pitch, and Mitchell and Jardine were both struck. Mitchell was hit just above the hip, while Jardine received a nasty blow in the abdomen. On each occasion play was held up for a few minutes.

Amar Singh, a fast-medium bowler, who took 139 wickets for the Indian team in England in 1932, was the most troublesome bowler on view. Keeping an excellent length, and making the ball break both ways, he always required careful watching.

Although the day was declared a public holiday by the Governor, the attendance was disappointingly small in comparison with the huge crowds who watched the first "Test" on Monday. Public enthusiasm here is not nearly so great as in most other centres, and as an official of the Bengal Cricket Association said that the match would result in financial loss unless the attendances greatly increased.

During the tea interval the teams were presented to the Governor's wife, Lady Jackson, and to the Governor of Bengal, Sir John Anderson. Only one change was made from the English team which defeated India in the "Test" at Bombay by nine wickets, W. H. V. Levett, the Kent wicket-keeper, replacing Elliott. As in the first "Test," Frank Mitchell was the old Middlesex player, and Bill Hitch, the former Surrey fast bowler, were the umpires.

Batsmen in the Wars

Jardine beat C. K. Walters on to toe, and gave England first knock on an excellent turf wicket. Mohammed Nissar, the Indian fast bowler, caused some disquieting among the spectators by setting a leg-theory field for Mitchell, who came out to open the innings with C. K. Walters, and Mitchell was soon in the wars. Nissar's second ball rose very quickly off the pitch, and struck him on the body. The game was held up for

FIRST MATCH SCORES

ENGLAND

FIRST INNINGS

MITCHELL, c Gopalan b C. K. Naidu	47
C. F. WALTERS c Gopalan b Amar Singh	29
BARNETT lbw b Amar Singh	8
LANGRIDGE, c Mohammed Nissar b Gopalan	70
D. R. JARDINE, not out	64
B. H. VALENTINE, lbw b C. K. Naidu	40
W. H. V. LEVETT, not out	6
Extras	21
Total (for 5 wickets)	257

Townsend, Nichols, Verity and Clark to bat

INDIA—Major C. K. Naidu, S. Wazir Ali, Amar Singh, Jesoond Naoomal, Mohammed Nissar, Amar Nath, V. M. Merchant, M. Gopalan, Mushtaq Ali, C. S. Naidu and Dilawar, Hussain.

---

about five minutes while he recovered. He resumed batting amid cheers from the crowd, and almost immediately appealed for a confident appeal for leg-before-wicket off Nissar.

Amar Singh was the other bowler, and Walters was also appealed against for lbw. in his first over. He survived it, however, and proceeded to square-cut the fourth, fifth, and sixth balls of Nissar's third over for the boundary. They were all magnificent shots which drew hearty applause from the spectators.

Amar Singh was keeping an impeccable length and he twice beat Walters, only to miss the stumps by a few inches. Nevertheless, it was a chanceless and invaluable effort that helped in partnerships of 80 and 50 with Mitchell and Jardine respectively. He hit eight boundaries.

Mitchell batted with typical Yorkshire doggedness after losing Jardine's wicket to Nissar's second ball of the first over of the match. Bringing the total to his chief scoring stroke, he stayed at the wicket for two hours 47 minutes in scoring 47, and played a great part in taking the sting out of the Indian attack.

The all-amateur partnership between D. R. Jardine and B. H. Valentine, which was instrumental in pulling the game round for England in the first "Test" on Monday, was again in evidence to-day. Coming together at 185 for 4, they carried the score to 226 before Valentine was dismissed in the closing minutes.

Stubborn Jardine

Valentine batted in his usual bright fashion after a quiet opening and scored 40 of the 71 runs added by the partnership in 66 minutes. He hit a six and three fours. Jardine batted with characteristic stubbornness, showing a straight bat to everything. It must have been a severe experience for the bowlers, and, apparently, the spectators too, for after the English captain had played four consecutive maidens, they exhorted him to "have a go."

Mohammed Nissar, India's fast bowler, supplied a lively topic for conversation by employing leg theory. He had a forward incision, two silly line legs, and a man on the fine leg boundary, but he also had three slips and dispensed with mid-off. Several of his deliveries got up sharply off the pitch, and Mitchell and Jardine were both struck. Mitchell was hit just above the hip, while Jardine received a nasty blow in the abdomen. On each occasion play was held up for a few minutes.

Amar Singh, a fast-medium bowler, who took 139 wickets for the Indian team in England in 1932, was the most troublesome bowler on view. Keeping an excellent length, and making the ball break both ways, he always required careful watching.

Although the day was declared a public holiday by the Governor, the attendance was disappointingly small in comparison with the huge crowds who watched the first "Test" in Monday. Public enthusiasm here is not nearly so great as in most other centres, and as an official of the Bengal Cricket Association said that the match would result in financial loss unless the attendances greatly increased.

During the tea interval the teams were presented to the Governor's wife, Lady Jackson, and to the Governor of Bengal, Sir John Anderson. Only one change was made from the English team which defeated India in the "Test" at Bombay by nine wickets, W. H. V. Levett, the Kent wicket-keeper, replacing Elliott. As in the first "Test," Frank Mitchell was the old Middlesex player, and Bill Hitch, the former Surrey fast bowler, were the umpires.

Batsmen in the Wars

Jardine beat C. K. Walters on to toe, and gave England first knock on an excellent turf wicket. Mohammed Nissar, the Indian fast bowler, caused some disquieting among the spectators by setting a leg-theory field for Mitchell, who came out to open the innings with C. K. Walters, and Mitchell was soon in the wars. Nissar's second ball rose very quickly off the pitch, and struck him on the body. The game was held up for

---

DUTY ON OATS

Northern Farmers Call for Increase

The annual meeting of the County Executive Committee of the North Riding and South Durham branch of the National Farmers' Union was held at Darlington, when Alderman G. Blair (Cleveland) presided over a large gathering of delegates from Darlington, Northallerton, Bedale, Thirsk, Stockton, Muker, Cleveland, Reeth, Wensleydale, Ripon, Masham, Barnard Castle, Bishop Auckland, and Stokesley.

The following were elected members of the Executive Committee: Messrs. G. Blair, J. W. Greenati (Thirsk), J. W. Pell (Darlington), A. Buckle (Nunthorpe), J. Wade (Stockton), W. Brunton (Stockton), F. C. Johnson (Darlington), and W. G. Hunter (Northallerton). It was decided to invite the Coverdale sub-branch to nominate a member to serve on the committee.

Alderman G. Blair was re-elected chairman and Mr. T. W. Appleby (Darlington) re-elected vice-chairman. Mr. J. G. Harris, County secretary, was re-elected as delegate to the Council; F. Watson, and Mr. J. H. Thompson (Stockton) as deputy delegate.

Following a report regarding a further increase in the duty on oats, it was resolved that immediate action should be taken to put in an application to the Import Duties Advisory Committee, pointing out the inadequacy of the present duty and asking that a further increase should be made to bring the duty up to a total of 3s. a cwt.

It was reported that during December there had been four outbreaks of sheep scab in Durham and three in the North Riding; also two outbreaks of swine fever in Durham and two in the North Riding.

Mr. J. W. Greenati reported that a serious outbreak of sheep scab in the counties on each side of the Pennine range, from Derbyshire to Cumberland, and that concerted action would have to be taken by local authorities in issuing the necessary double dipping order.

Intimation was made that Mr. T. Baxter, chairman of the Milk Marketing Board, had accepted an invitation to attend the annual county dinner, which will be held at the Town Hall, Northallerton, on Friday, February 2.

The action of the Chairman in supporting the nomination of Mr. J. A. Fox, of Arkseyy Doncaster, as the representative of the Northern Area on the Pigs Marketing Board, was confirmed.

BRADFORD BOY CRUSHED

It was stated in our report, yesterday, of the inquest on a boy who was crushed by a bale of wool, that the accident occurred on the premises of Messrs. Bomford, Pollard and Co., wool merchants, of Manor Row, Bradford. This was incorrect. The accident occurred on the premises of Messrs. J. W. Pennington, and references at the inquest to the operation of the crane concerned referred to them and not to Messrs. Bomford, Pollard, and Co.

NEIL DEWAR

Wedding at Knutsford on Monday

Mr. Arthur Thomson, of Doncaster, uncle of Miss Betty Thomson, of Sale, about whose forthcoming wedding to Mr. Neil Dewar, the Scottish International and Sheffield Wednesday footballer, there have been various reports of the place and time of the ceremony, state yesterday, are:

"The wedding will take place at Knutsford (Cheshire) on Monday morning at 11 o'clock."

AMATEUR TRIAL TEAMS

The following are the teams for the Amateur International trial match—North v. South—at Wimbledon:

NORTH—H. J. Drury (Marine, Liverpool); G. Roylance (Yorkshire Amateurs), W. T. Whewell (Corinthians); H. Duck (South Bank), W. H. Major (New Brighton) L. King (Marine, Liverpool); A. Parsons (Northern Nomads), R. Westcott (Liverpool), J. Palmer (Bootle and Bank, Liverpool), N. V. Love (Moor Green, Birmingham), R. Banks (Birmingham University), H. Wilson (Sheffield), Davis (Cheltenham Town), G. G. Holmes (Ilford), H. S. Robbins (Corinthians), R. White (Royal Navy), J. C. Burns (Bromley); R. Duck (South) (Leyton), A. H. Fabian (Corinthians), W. G. Sutcliffe (Dulwich Hamlet), W. H. Webster (Corinthians), E. J. Braund (Ilford).

Referee, A. Curtis (London).

ETON COLLEGE BEAGLES

The Eton College beagles had a long draw up to Mr. Ford's land after meeting at Great Ouseburn yesterday morning. They found a hare on the road to Bishop Wilton Wold Farm. She took them away to the Scots Dale, where they ran round it a dozen hares on foot. After spending some time in the Dale, hounds got away with a hare which went left-handed past Low Callis Wold, and leaving Callis Wold on their left, crossed the road and checked just short of Seventy Acre Plantation. They squatted in some roots and after some time hounds succeeded in putting her up.

After another 30 minutes near Greenwick Cottage and Callis Wold, hounds caught their hare after a good hunt of 80 minutes. This ended the day

---

BATLEY MAN'S INJURY

A man's arm was severed at the Alexandra Mills of G. H. Hirst and Co., Ltd., woollen manufacturers, Batley, yesterday, when the foreman of the garnett department, John Windle (37), of Wellington Street, Batley, caught his left arm in one of the machines.

The limb was severed below the elbow. After medical attention he was taken to hospital.

Upton Colliery, the newest pit in the South Yorkshire coalfield, has established a winding record, 2,339 tubs of coal being drawn in one shift's work. The figure represents about 1,780 tons.

Billiards

GREAT VICTORY FOR SWINHOE

11 Points Margin in Boys' Title Final

FINAL SESSION RALLY

Willie Swinhoe, the 12-years-old Newcastle boy, yesterday won the Boys' Amateur Billiards Championship, beating Joe Diamond, of Hawthorn, South Shields, by 750 points to 739.

Swinhoe's win was accomplished in a game which made up a record for a handicap billiards championship final. Swinhoe was over a hundred behind with the last third of the game to be played.

During the second of the intervals he went for a walk in London gardens, and a black cat followed him and rubbed against his leg. "Stroke the cat for luck," said Mrs. Swinhoe to her son. Not only did he stroke the cat, but carried it back to the match room. No matter that Cruickshanks followed the cat in the same way—he was going to the table. Willie won the match, the championship, and the right to captain England in the next international against Scotland.

"I do wish the cat had not run away from the room," said Willie afterwards. "Yes," said Mrs. Swinhoe, "we would have taken it back to Newcastle with us."

"All Up With Me"

"I thought it was all up with me at the end of the second session," said Swinhoe to a "Yorkshire Post" reporter after his win.

"It was a great thing for me, and what with my win in the last three minutes against Jack Wright, the holder, in the semi-final, and the win over Diamond, I'm close pal, I think I am entitled to a rest."

Although Willie was obviously tired at the end of the final, he managed successfully calm in spite of his ordeal.

Diamond was a good downcast by his defeat. "I know that I tired during the last hundred," he said, "but I'm coming up to London again next year for the championship. Of course, Willie will not mind it if I desire to meet him in the final once again, and to beat him."

In the early part of the play, Swinhoe led by 128 to 110, and although the pair kept level for some time, there was always the general impression that Cruickshanks would go ahead. He did towards the end of the first session, however.

He had a lead of 21 at that stage, and it was in the second interval that Cruickshanks seemed to have assured himself of the cup. At length, Cruickshanks's lead came down to two at 678, and after Swinhoe had been in front at 734, the score level at 739, Cruickshanks's chance had gone, for Swinhoe then was in the middle of a break which turned out to be 11 unfinished, and which gave him the championship cup.

The chief breaks in the three sessions, and the scores at the two intervals, show the run of the play:—

FIRST SESSION

Cruickshanks—22, 21, 27, 35 (unfinished), Swinhoe—23.

INTERVAL—Cruickshanks (in play) 259, Swinhoe 238.

SECOND SESSION

Cruickshanks—37 (full), 27, 21, 33, 23, 27, 20.

Swinhoe—32.

INTERVAL—Cruickshanks (in play) 503, Swinhoe 396.

THIRD SESSION

Cruickshanks—26, 44, 35.

Swinhoe—Scratched for 17 unfinished.

DAVIS'S BIG BREAK

Newman heavily outpointed Davis during the first of to-day's sessions in their match at Thurston's, London, by aggregating 1,077 and averaging 77 against Davis's figures of 606 and 39.

After carrying his small overnight break to 135 full Newman had runs of 193, 107, 365, 106, and 181 unfinished, the only three-figure break was 264. Interval scores:—Davis, 7,021; Newman, 8,877.

With a break of 668 at the later session Davis had put the issue beyond doubt, scoring 849 points for the session and averaging 141.

Newman totalled 720 and averaged 103, having runs of 353 full, 161, 134, 109, and 63 unfinished.

Closing scores:—

Davis	7,870
Newman (in play)	7,193

BARNSLEY GIRL IN FINAL

Miss Nancy Fenn, the 16-year-old daughter of a doctor at Wombwell, has beaten in the semi-final of the Girls' Amateur Billiards Championship, at Burroughes Hall, London Pavilion.

The winner was Miss Banks, also 16 years of age, who won by 1,000 to 811, and qualified to meet Miss Helen McDougall, the 15-years-old holder of the title, in the final to-day.

Miss Banks, who is the daughter of a Barnsley Institute caretaker, had breaks of 19 and 12. She devoted herself to plain sailing, and made no attempt to impress her on her ball. Miss Fenn had a break of 12.

BOAT RACE PRACTICE

Work Resumed by Light Blues' Crew

Cambridge commenced training for the boat race yesterday, when the President, K. M. Payne (Eton and Third Trinity), ordered the eight out at 9.30 a.m. and subsequently by Mr. F. J. Escombe and Mr. L. V. Bevan, both of whom are old Blues. The work, which was of a very light nature, consisted of easy stages of paddling to the Baitesbite Locks and back to the Goldie University boathouse.

Only two of the seven resident Blues were in yesterday's crew, but it is expected that the President will be joined by Mr. C. Stuart when Squadron-Leader F. E. Hellyer will take over. T. Frame-Thomson and W. L. R. Cazalet, last year's stroke and No. 7, respectively. Will no doubt be included at a later stage. C. M. Fletcher, last year's No. 7, who was considered to be one of the best finishers in Cambridge crews for many years, has not will be unable to row this year owing to business reasons.

Thirteen oarsmen and a coxswain had been ordered up in residence by yesterday, but the crew was complete with the following:—

A. D. Kingsford (Uppingham and Pembroke), bow; E. G. Pasalis (Charterhouse and Pembroke), 2; A. T. Bamell (Melbourne, Australia, and Pembroke), 3; C. M. Fletcher (Shrewsbury and Pembroke), 4; J. Wilson (Melbourne, Australia, and Pembroke), 5; J. Bradley (Monkton, Combe and Pembroke), 6; W. J. Bell (Sydney, Australia, and Pembroke), 7; J. E. Gilmour (Eton and Trinity Hall), stroke; J. N. Duckworth (Lincoln and Goldie), cox.

* Indicates an Old Blue.

FOUR OUTINGS FOR OXONIANS

Thursday's high wind at Oxford had completely dropped when practice was resumed yesterday in bright and watery weather. Mr. A. E. Kitchin (St. John's) superintended the work and found his time fully occupied with the crew and four outings. On two of them they covered the full course for the most part at a stroke of 22 per minute, although on the last journey they indulged in a bit of hard rowing at 28 per minute.

Changes were made in the order on each occasion. The first time down it consisted of W. H. Hughes (Worcester) bow, and H. Lascelles (Balliol), 2, B. Backville-West (Magdalen), 3, and A. Constantine (Christ Church), 7, Rugg (New College), 5, B. S. Bankes (Christ Church), G. A. Ellison (New College), and A. V. Sutcliffe (Trinity) stroke.

On the second outing C. S. Reid (Oriel) was brought in at bow and J. R. Thompson (Balliol) came in at No. 7.

In the afternoon Mignoti went back to bow, M. H. Mosley (Trinity) displaced Lascelles at No. 2, Hogg was tried at No. 3 in place of Backville-West, Holdsworth came in at No. 4 for Couchman, Bankes, who had been rowing No. 6, went into Hogg's old seat at 5, and the president resumed his seat at No. 7 vice Thomson. In the final outing several changes were made, Holdsworth, who had been rowing No. 4 being transferred to the stroke thwart.

Golf

CLUB COURSES IN YORKSHIRE

Revised List of Scratch Scores

GENERAL LOWERING

Revised scratch scores for most of the golf courses in Yorkshire have been sent to the clubs, who have been eagerly awaiting the results of the revision carried out by the Yorkshire Union of Golf Clubs at the request of the English Golf Union.

As was forecast in "The Yorkshire Post" recently, most of the scratch scores have been lowered by two strokes, which will mean in many cases that players' handicaps will be raised by one or two strokes—except where clubs have been handicapping to a figure lower than their old scratch score. In revising the scratch scores, the Union request clubs to adhere to the conditions contained in the English Union's "Memorandum on Handicapping."

Clubs are also asked to make "bogey" coincide with the scratch score.

If clubs disagree with the findings of the Yorkshire Union they have the right to appeal to the Council of Referees for further consideration. The new and old scratch scores and, where available, the measurements of the courses, are as follows:—

Club	Yards	New Scratch Score	Old Scratch Score
Abbeydale	6,328	74	76
Aiwoodley, Leeds	6,321	74	76
Baildon	6,106	70	72
Barnsley and Dist.	6,322	69	71
Beauchief	6,246	67	69
Bradford Moor	6,166	68	70
Bradford	6,147	73	75
Brandsby	6,045	69	70
Brough	5,622	71	72
Bulmer	6,737	70	72
Bridlington	—	70	72
Clayton	6,280	64	66
Cleckheaton	5,596	71	74
Cleveland	6,215	73	74
Coley Lane, Wentworth	—	—	—
Crosland Heath	6,218	68	—
Dewsbury	5,661	70	73
Dore and Totley	6,043	69	71
Doncaster Town Moor	5,068	67	68
East Bierley	4,956	64	66
Elland	6,160	69	71
Fulneck	5,540	69	71
Ganton	6,438	72	74
Ganton	6,438	75	76
Garforth	6,098	70	72
Ghyll	5,470	69	73
Gotin	6,220	70	—
Grasmington	4,565	65	69
Halifax	6,115	73	74
Halifax West End	5,801	68	71
Halifax Bradley Hall	—	71	73
Hallamshire	6,108	73	74
Hallowes	6,265	73	74
Harrogate	6,256	72	74
Hebden Bridge	4,756	65	—
Hilsborough	6,218	70	72
Hornsea	6,386	70	72
Horsforth	6,060	72	74
Howley Hall Ellis	6,000	71	73
Howley Hall	5,705	69	71
Horbury	6,000	69	71
Huddersfield	6,367	74	77
Huddersfield	6,319	73	75
Hessle	—	65	67
Ilkley	6,058	73	75
Ilkley Moor	4,908	68	68
Ilkley Moor	6,033	73	75
Kirbymoorside	4,966	68	—
Knaresborough	6,000	68	70
Leeds (Cobble Hall)	6,160	71	73
Lees Hall	6,107	71	73
Lightcliffe	5,260	67	69
Lofthouse	6,744	74	76
Middlesbrough	6,389	68	70
Marsden	5,394	69	71
Moor Allerton	6,023	69	71
Moortown	6,426	74	75
Normanton	5,240	68	—
Normanton	5,240	68	—
Northcliffe, Shipley	5,715	71	73
Otley	5,615	71	73
Outlane	6,022	67	70
Pandale	6,022	68	70
Phoenix Park, Bradf'd	4,440	64	65
Pocklington	6,344	70	72
Pontefract	6,035	73	74
Pannal	6,098	72	74
Queensbury	4,782	65	70
Rawdon Park	6,394	70	72
Rotherham	5,582	73	75
Esther Vale	6,092	73	76
Robin Hood	6,000	70	72
Roundhay	5,858	68	70
Ryburn	—	68	70
Riddlesden	5,686	64	68
Ripon City	4,842	66	68
Rawdon	4,734	65	68
Ripon	6,000	70	72
Scarboro'. South Cliff	5,810	71	73
Sand Moor	6,420	74	76
Seaton	6,000	70	72
Sheffield and Dist.	6,871	74	77
Sherburn	6,022	64	66
Silkwell Park	6,100	73	74
Silsden	6,000	70	72
St. Ives, Bingley	6,916	73	77
Scarboro'. North Cliff	6,255	74	77
South Leeds	5,474	68	71
Skipton	5,622	70	71
Saltburn	6,000	69	70
South Bradford	5,930	69	70
Sandmoor	6,236	70	72
Saltburn	—	67	69
Shirley Park	6,900	72	74
Tees Side	5,810	70	73
Thirsk Park	6,341	70	73
Temple Newsam (Lord Irwin)	5,881	71	73
Temple Newsam (Lady Wood)	6,384	74	75
Thirsk	—	70	72
Wakefield	6,521	75	77
West Bierley	5,745	70	72
West, Bradford	5,406	69	71
Wetherby	6,000	69	71
Wheatley Park	5,052	73	75
Woodsome Hall	5,025	73	76
Woodsome Hall	5,622	64	—
Wentworth Woodhouse	5,496	69	—
Worsley, Manchester	6,092	72	74
Withernsea	4,962	67	69
Whitehall Hills	—	69	69
Whitby	—	67	69
York Ely, Instituta	5,809	71	74
York	5,935	73	74

WEST YORKSHIRE ALLIANCE

Draw for Tuesday's Bogey Competition

The draw for the West Yorkshire Golfing Alliance four-ball competition against bogey, to be played on the course of the Woodsome Hall Club, on Tuesday, is as follows:—

Midham and Woodsome Hall No. 3.
Woodsome Hall No. 2 and Crosland Heath No. 1.
Crosland Heath No. 2 and Huddersfield No. 2.
Huddersfield No. 1 and Bingley No. 1.
Marsden and F. Sellers, Wrenn, J. Smith, Bingley and Woodhall Hills.
Bingley No. 2 and Bradford No. 1.
Bradford No. 2 and Garforth No. 1.
Garforth No. 2 and Bingley No. 2.
Bingley No. 3 and Woodhall Hills.
Leeds and Ilkley.
Ilkley and Oakdale No. 1.
Oakdale No. 2 and Halifax.
Halifax Moor and Knaresborough.
Knaresborough and Rowley.
Sand Moor and Queensbury.
The four-ball matches will tee-up at 9 o'clock, and the remainder follow at five minute intervals.

PANNAL—Ladies'—M—H. Oxtoby 1—Mrs. Knight 7½, 15, 81; Second Division—Mrs. Pomeroy 113, 35.

TO-DAY'S LACROSSE

YORKSHIRE LEAGUE

HEADINGLEY v. LEEDS UNIVERSITY

HEADINGLEY—A. J. C. Balkwill, W. A. Blythman, D. Collett, B. McKenna, C. F. Waide, C. M. Cravens, S. R. Brown, P. Tetley, J. Woodhead, J. E. Steel, R. Darbishire, J. Wordsworth.

LEEDS UNIVERSITY—W. M. Mathers, E. Mills, G. Baird, C. Wilson, J. Wood, R. Dodd, G. F. Smith, E. E. Hitchen, G. A. Dent, J. C. Sharp, S. P. Fergus, J. Wilson.

OLD VARSITY STUDENTS v. OLD GROVIANS

OLD VARSITY STUDENTS (selected from)—H. R. Worrall, W. W. Wilders, A. Lupton, W. Male, E. Wormald, F. C. Cogan, W. J. Barrow, H. Barrow, J. C. Eastwood, B. Overend, W. E. Berry, C. M. Hartley.

OLD GROVIANS—H. R. Jowett, A. P. Greenwood, Keith Hartley, H. Sykes, C. Waddington, A. Lupton, W. Hartley, O. Mallowalle, A. S. Maney, C. C. Cousen, E. D. Reed, F. B. Dickinson, and another.

In a bowling match at Clifton, W. Bland (Wednesday) defeated H. Bottomley (Clifton) by 51 points to 20.

Golf

GATWICK RACING RETURN

D. Morgan Wins on Martian and Pompier

1.—CLAYTON SELLING HANDICAP STEEPLE CHASE (three miles) of 110 sovs.; second receive 7 sovs.; winner to be sold for 50 sovs. Actual value to winner £102.)

11 7 MARTIAN, 12, T. Pomeroy—Princess of Wales (Mr. F. Barker) ..... D. Morgan 1
7 0 SELLIN, 12, Mr. Goldsmith—Pompier ..... Mr. Goldsmith 2
0 0 RIPPONTIDE, 12 (Mrs. Buswell-Spencer) ..... C. Wenham 3
11 7 Little Honey, 10 (Mr. J. Pendarves) ..... T. Isaac 0
10 0 Buxford, 8 (Mr. A. E. Berry) ..... D. Morgan 0
10 0 Gunner L, 8 (Mr. M. A. T. Johnson) ..... Taylor 0

10 0 Morgilous, 10—car. 10st. 5lb. (Mr. Gordon Bruce) ..... Capt. Rowsell 0
10 0 Ballyspinner, 13 (Mr. F. W. Rodner) ..... Rainey last

Winner trained by Letsbey, Cheltenham.

Betting—5 to 4 on Martian, 100 to 30 Pompier, 7 to 2 Rippontide, 100 to 8 Little Honey, 100 to 6 Buxford and Gobelin, and 100 to 7 others. Race started at 2.30. Pompier led from the start, and, after the 1st, had places—4a, 7a, 2a, 5d. Win paid 1.8?, place paid 1.8?.

Martian fell at the second fence and Gunner L. at the third. Rippontide refused the fourth and Little Honey refused the fifth. Buxford fell at the sixth and Hoddy refused and Morgilous fell. Passing the stands Gobelin L. was 1½ lengths behind Pompier, Ballyspinner and Martian, but Gunner L. fell a mile and a quarter from home. Martian was 1½ lengths behind Little Honey but Gobelin joined him and they jumped the last three in company. Pompier won by three lengths, Martian was the 1st. and Little Honey by four lengths, Ian Murdie divided the second and third. The winner was bought in for 50 sovs.

1.30—HORLEY SELLING HURDLE RACE (two miles) of 100 sovs.; second receive 5 sovs.; weight for age, etc.; winner to be sold for 50 sovs. Actual value to winner £102.)

10 0 *LADYBIRD, 4, 10—Cinnamon ..... Foster
Josephine (Mr. A. Foster) ..... Foster
1 0 ..... T. Collis Richards 1
10 10 THE TEKE, 9 (Mr. W. J. Oldworth) ..... W. Hollick 2
0 0 *GAY LOVER, 4 (Mr. R. Core) ..... M. Hogan 3
10 0 *BLUE BOY, 4 (Mr. H. Bowlby) ..... Evans 4
10 0 Bustling Billy, 4 (Mr. R. Simmonds) ..... Hennessy 0

11 0 Sniff, 7, (Mr. J. Sutton) ..... J. Marshall 5
10 0 Sydaybo, 6, (Mr. J. R. Canty) ..... D. McCarthy 0
10 0 Sandwich, 6, (Mr. J. Evans) ..... W. Dunk 0
10 1 Thunder, 9 (Mr. W. Smyth) ..... H. Nicholson 0
10 0 Ballyspinner, 13 (Mr. F. W. Rodner) ..... Rainey 0

Betting—13 to 8 agst Sniffing, 2 to 1 Lord Melton, 5 to 2 agst The Teke, 100 to 30 Gay Lover, 100 to 8 each The Teke and Martin, and 100 to 7 Ballyspinner and Blue Boy. Race started at 1.30. Win dividend £2. stake—20/6. Places—6d, 6d. Lord Melton led from the start, but Sandiloe was badly away and Skiff fell at the first. Lord Melton led to the 3rd, and 1 and 2 of Gay Lover, The Teke, Blueness, Fosdown and Lord Melton. Lord Melton led to the 4th, and 1 and 2 of Gay Lover, Blueness, Fosdown and Lord Melton. Lord Melton led to the 5th, and 1 and 2 of Gay Lover, The Teke, Blueness, Fosdown and Lord Melton. The last-named passed Lord Melton at the 6th, and 1 and 2 of Gay Lover, The Teke, Blueness, Fosdown and Lord Melton. The Teke by three-parts of a length; a head between Blueness and Fosdown. Lord Melton no bd for the winner. Time 5m 58 1-5s.

2.—FEVERSHAM HANDICAP STEEPLE CHASE (four miles) of 200 sovs.; second receive 30 sovs. Actual value to winner £1,210.)

11 11 UNCLE BATT, 6, 11 st, Sexton Dog—Rose Bramble (Mr. H. E. Smith) ..... Mr. Rees 1
4 1 BACHELOR PRINCE, ... (Miss M. Gelly) ..... Mr. Gelly 2
0 0 ..... (10—car. 10 st. 7 lbs.) ..... W. Parker 3
12 0 *Spotty, 6 (Mr. G. Shakerley) ..... Mr. Rees 4
9 0 *Ruin, 9 (Lord Mildmay of Flete) ..... Mildmay 0
0 0 ..... Mildmay 0
0 0 ..... Dart 0
7 0 *Black Grape, 7 (Capt. P. R. Bewicke) ..... Bewicke 0

Winner trained by James, Nutfield.

Betting—Even money Uncle Batt, 11 to 4 Society, 5 to 2 UNCLE BATT, 100 to 8 each Bachelor Prince and Ruin, 100 to 6 Black Grape, 100 to 5 Spotty, and 100 to 7 Gay Lover. Race started at 3.0. Win dividend £2. stake—2s. 6d. Win paid 4.3?, place paid 2.?0. Uncle Batt led from the start, and, after the 1st, was followed by Black Grape, Bachelor Prince, Society, Spotty, Ruin, Gay Lover and Society. Bachel