

1

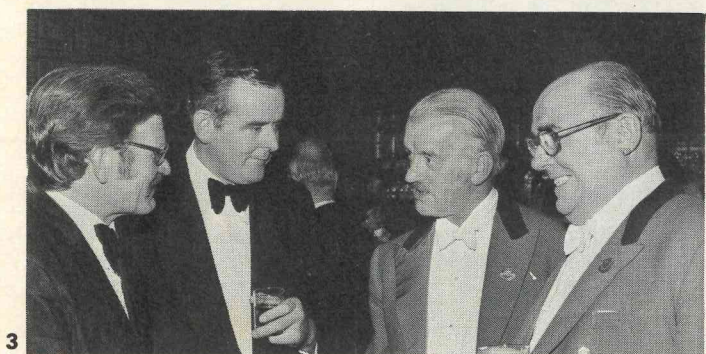

4

2

5

3

6

THE SILVER JUBILEE DINNER of the Cheshire Union of Golf Clubs took place last month at the Queen Hotel, Chester.

1 Mr. William Ball, past president of Cheshire (left), with Mr. Arthur Cutter, another of the County past presidents and Mr. Charles Raine, president of the Scottish Golf Union.

2 Two past presidents of England, Mr. George Walker (left), president 1975/6 and Mr. Ted Hill (centre), president 1974/5 with Mr. Jack Parker, president of Lancashire.

3 Mr. Ray Whalley, president of Astbury G.C. (left), Mr. John Clegg, Sandiway G.C., Mr. John Eckersley Hope, past president of Lancashire and a former captain of Royal Birkdale G.C. and Mr. Jack Bowers, a past president of Lancashire.

4 From left to right, Mr. Norman Potter, a past president and a past captain of Disley G.C., Mr. John Wild, captain of the Society of Liverpool Golf Captains, Mr. Clifford Pott, captain of the Manchester Society of Golf Captains and Mr. Barry Wax, captain of Dunham Forest G.C.

5 Mr. Dennis Chilton, Cheshire president 1974/5 (left), Mr. Raymond Cullen, Cheshire President elect and Mr. Alastair Fraser-Thomson, Cheshire president 1975/76.

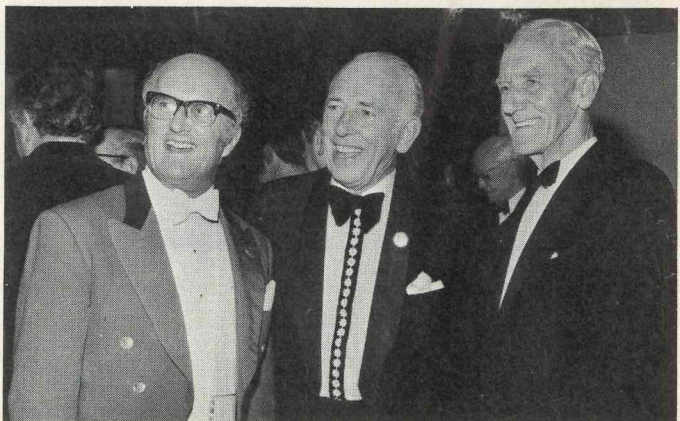

6 Dr. George Moore, president of the English Golf Union (left), Mr. John Hibbert, president of Cheshire Union of Golf Clubs and Mr. David Coleman, the broadcaster, who was guest speaker.

7 Mr. Gordon Edwards, a member of the Cheshire Executive Committee (left), Mr. Peter Geddes of Sandbach G.C., who is match play champion of Cheshire, and Mr. Robin Biggs of Royal Liverpool G.C., the current Cheshire champion.

8 Mr. Peter Dutton, past president of Cheshire (left), Mr. Rusty Williams, captain of the Cheshire Colts and Mr. Alastair Kennedy, Cheshire County Team captain.

7

8