THE CHESHIRE UNION MEETING.

In consequence of the drought of 1921 and the continued hot weather of the present season the council of the Royal Liverpool Golf Club have reluctantly decided that the course will be unfit for the meeting of the Cheshire Union of Golf Clubs, July 5 to 8. The council of the Prenton Golf Club, near Birkenhead, have invited the Union to hold the meeting on their links, and this has been accepted. The nearest approach is by the Mersey railway to Birkenhead (Central), thence by taxi or tramway to Prenton.
