NEW CLUB FOR PENDLETON DISTRICT. . . .

At a well attended meeting of the Claremont Golf Club, held at Irlams-o'-th'-Height, a resolution was unanimously passed to wind up the club at the end of the present financial year. A new club is to be formed, to be called the Swinton Park Golf Club, and ground has been taken on lease in Swinton Park which is pronounced ideal for the purpose by James Braid.

A course has been planned by Braid, and it is proposed to employ Messrs. Hawtrey and Taylor to construct the course. The conjunction of two such famous golfers as J. H. Taylor and James Braid should have excellent results. The formation of another club will mean room for additional members.
