

DRUG ADDICTION.

REVELATIONS AT WELSH INQUEST.

DOCTOR AND WIFE POISONED.

At the inquest on New Tregear yesterday, Mr. A. G. C. Findlay, Dr. Findlay's wife, Maud (Mrs. G.), who were found dead at their home on Tuesday night, remarkable evidence was given.

Asked by the Coroner whether Mrs. Findlay was addicted to either drinking or smoking, Mr. Findlay said she was not, but he had a suspicion as to Dr. Findlay.

Dismissed by His Employer.

Dr. D. Ross Roberts stated that Dr. Findlay was an exceedingly good assistant but unfortunately failed to drive to work on Tuesday. He was dismissed by his employer.

WATER IN MILK.

Dairy Company Blame Farmers.

William Coffin, a dairyman, of 32, Sevier Street, Westbury-on-Trym, has been ordered to pay £100 damages to the Bristol Dairy Company.

BILIARDS.

Temperance League Final.

A match which decided the championship of the Bristol Temperance League was played on Thursday evening at the Royal Albert Hall.

MEAL MARKET.

At the London market yesterday, the price of wheat was 45s 6d per quarter, and the price of flour was 45s 6d per quarter.

TRAINING NURSES.

BRISTOL AGREEMENT WITH BATH.

A GOOD WORK FOR SOME UNEMPLOYED.

Mr. H. Hanson presided at Bristol Board of Guardians yesterday, when the Chairman (Mr. W. H. Byr), and the Clerk were appointed as delegates to the National Council.

Training of Bath Nurses.

The Southmead Hospital Management Committee reported that since the 30th May, 1923, arrangements had been made to send the Bath Union certain probationers from that Union that had received a professional training.

New Medical Superintendent.

There were 92 applicants for the post of medical superintendent at Southmead Hospital. The Board of Guardians interviewed the candidates.

Money Repaid.

The Settlement and Maintenance Committee, reporting on their past year's work, stated that the total amount of money repaid to the poor was £3,000.

Relief to Unemployed.

The ordinary relief last week was 2,397 indoor poor, 11,169 outdoor poor, 76 lunatics, 14,272, against 15,516 in the corresponding week last year.

Sudden Death at Avonmouth.

Alfred Mead, Priory Road, Shiphams, died suddenly on Monday evening at his home at 10, Priory Road, Avonmouth.

Westbury Unionists' Concert.

At the Parish Hall, Westbury-on-Trym, last evening, Mr. A. E. Chaplin presided at a musical concert and entertainment given for the benefit of the Westbury Unionists.

Sale of Antiques.

Messrs John E. Pritchard and Co. sold by auction the contents of No. 1, Christ Church, Westbury-on-Trym, on Monday evening.

GLOSHIRE CUP.

THE HOLDERS BEATEN.

Decisive Win for Kingswood.

The 11th of this season's local amateur football took place on the Bristol Rover ground last evening, when Kingswood defeated the holders in the final of the Gloucestershire Senior Amateur Cup.

OFF-SIDE CHANGES.

Approved by the F.A.

Cup-Tie Dates for 1925-26.

The Council of the Football Association yesterday did not approve Scotland's proposal for lines 40 yards from the combine line.

Exempted Clubs.

The Football Association Council yesterday decided that the following clubs be exempted from the rules of the association.

Cup-Tie Dates.

Dates for next season's competition were fixed as follows: Qualifying competition, extra preliminary on September 15th; first round, October 3rd; second round, October 17th; third round, October 31st; fourth round, November 14th.

English XI in France.

At a meeting of the International Selection Committee yesterday the following team was chosen to play against France.

CRICKET.

TOSsing IN THE TEST.

M.C.C. Suggest a Change.

The annual meeting of the M.C.C. will be held at Lord's on Wednesday, May 6th. In the annual report the Committee stated that the toss in the Test matches should be changed.

Glo'shire Winners at Polo Poles Show.

At its annual meeting and sale of polo poles yesterday, the National Polo Society, presided by the Duke of Devonshire, elected a new committee.

GOLF.

THE ENGLISH CHAMPION.

SPLENDIDLY-FOUGHT FINAL.

Haylake is one of the few villages in England which is entirely devoted to golf. One may see miniature clubs in top shop windows and the natives of whatever age are quite perfect in the history of the game.

Robinson may have been regarded as no match for his opponent, but he was not to be taken for granted.

Bigging for Halves.

It was at the 11th hole in the second round that Robinson seemed to be finally in the lead. He had played a poor second hole but was lying on the green a long way from the hole.

A Broken Club.

It was a curious fact that in the first round of the competition, the club which Robinson used was broken.

Strange Happening.

Immediately on the start of the second round Robinson proceeded to make a long putt on the 12th hole, which was a hole-in-one.

Fateful and Fatal.

The last hole of the final was a fateful and fatal for Robinson. After a drive Robinson took a run for his second and third holes.

St. Mary Redcliff Hockey Club Dance.

An enjoyable evening was spent at the hockey club on Wednesday evening, when the members of the club and their friends were entertained.

SHAREHOLDERS VICTIMISED.

The time has come when the business community must be protected from fraudulent shareholders when the company is being liquidated.

Dealer Sent to Penal Servitude.

The time has come when the business community must be protected from fraudulent dealers when the company is being liquidated.

Musical Celebration at Bristol Cathedral.

The Bristol Madrigal Society is joining in the memory of one of the greatest of English church musicians—Orlando Gibbons—when its anniversary is being celebrated.

50 TONS OF PURE PAINT.

In addition we are now offering 50 tons of pure paint. Colors 7th, 4th, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th.

P. E. Gane Ltd In College Green Bristol. CARPETS OF DISTINCTION FOR HARD WEAR. MODERATELY PRICED.

This mark guarantees QUALITY. BULL & BISCUIT CHICKEN MEAL. IT APPEARS ONLY ON BAGS CONTAINING THE FAMOUS.

PIKE & TUCKER Biscuit Manufacturers BRISTOL. The feed that gives the best results under all conditions.

ALFRED HERBERT LTD, COVENTRY. GRINDING MACHINES AT BARGAIN PRICES. No confession.

The steeper the hill the greater the need. The British Petrol. PRODUCERS GREEN'S Dairy Farms.

WRIDE'S Ex-Government Tools Store. 21, CASTLE STREET, BRISTOL. 100% OF USEFUL TOOLS FOR ALL TRADES AND HOUSEHOLD USE.