

THE HOYLAKE INTERNATIONAL: AN ENGLAND-SCOTLAND TIE

IMITATION THE SINCEREST FORM—: A SPECTATOR COPIES W. J. GUILD, SCOTLAND'S CAPTAIN, AS HE PUTS AGAINST TOLLEY ON THE 12TH.

THE SCOTTISH TEAM: (L. TO R. STANDING), W. B. TORRANCE, W. L. HOPE, C. GIBB, JNR., W. TULLOCH, W. WILLIS MACKENZIE, A. F. SIMPSON. (SITTING), W. A. MURRAY, W. J. GUILD (CAPT.), A. JAMIESON, R. HARRIS.

THE ENGLISH TEAM: (L. TO R. STANDING), R. H. HARDMAN, T. P. PERKINS, J. B. BEDDARD, W. L. HARTLEY, R. W. HARTLEY, H. D. GILLIES. (SITTING), T. F. ELLISON, C. J. H. TOLLEY (CAPT.), R. H. WETHERED, E. F. STOREY

REPLACING BALL PICKED UP IN ERROR: A CADDIE PICKED UP MR. TULLOCH'S BALL, WHICH WAS DRIVEN TO THE SECOND TEE.

R. H. HARDMAN, OF BIRKDALE, SHELTERS FROM THE RAIN BEHIND HIS UMBRELLA, WHILE WAITING FOR HIS OPPONENT'S BALL TO BE FOUND.

The England v. Scotland match, the curtain-raiser to this week's championship at Hoylake, ended for the first time in the history of the encounters in a draw. Scotland won 3 to 2 of the foursomes, but lost 5 to 4 of the singles. Mr. Roger Wethered was in great form when beating Mr. Robert Harris 8 and 7, while the match between the respective captains, Mr. C. J. H. Tolley (England) and Mr. W. J. Guild (Scotland), was halved.