

GOLF.

CHESHIRE UNION FORMED.

The scheme to form a Union of Cheshire Golf Clubs was successfully carried through yesterday at a meeting held in Manchester. It was announced that 36 clubs had given notice of willingness to join such a union, and as these include the Royal Liverpool, Wallasey, Leasowe, and Bromborough, of the Wirral organisations, and most of those at the eastern end of the county, the new combination starts with an advantage over the Lancashire Union, from which some of the clubs on the coast have so far held aloof.

There was a large attendance of delegates, and an excellent start was made by electing Mr. Harold Janion, secretary of the Royal Liverpool, as the first president, with Mr. D. T. Mylrea (Sale) as honorary secretary, and Mr. G. Tweedale (Wilmslow) as honorary treasurer. A draft of the suggested rules was submitted, and it was decided to submit these to the various clubs for their consideration. The lowest annual subscription will probably be one guinea, and the contribution will be fixed on a sliding scale based on the membership of each club. The general business of the union will be conducted by a council consisting of delegates appointed by the clubs, and there will be an executive committee of twelve elected annually by the delegates. Yesterday a committee was appointed of representatives from Romiley, Sale, Stockport, Bowdon, Wallasey, Leasowe, Royal Liverpool, Bramhall, Delamere, Hale, Wilmslow, and Timperley.

It is intended to run a county championship competition next summer, and while the Hoylake course was mentioned as the proper one on which to hold the first of these competitions, it was felt that as the Royal Liverpool Club is to be responsible for the amateur championship next year it was too much to ask for the famous course at present. The Stockport and Delamere links were suggested, and the final decision was left over until the wishes of the Delamere Club had been ascertained.
